

Fraternal Message

By Auta de Souza (Spirit)

My friend: Your simplest prayers
They are heard in the infinite space,
But I know that sometimes you cry, dismayed,
By the silence of the force which you entreat

Return to your abandoned inner temple
- The highest of all chapels -
And the most lucid and beautiful answers
Will cause you joy and amazement

Listen to your heart in each prayer.
God answers within you and enlightens
With the eternal force of consolation;

You will understand the pain that dominates you,
Under the pure and pilgrim language
Of the voice of God, in light of redemption
